FOUR JUNIORS TO VISIT WASHINGTON D.C. CLOSE-UP

Four members of the Junior Class--John Appelbaum, John Menius, Rich Geisman, and Keith Pace--have been selected to tour Washington, D.C. as participants of the Close-Up program. The trip will last from Feb. 16th through the 22nd.

The purpose of this experience is to offer an in-depth look at the mechanics of the Federal Government. The four SLUH students, along with others from the St. Louis area, will meet with various Congressmen, White House staff members, State Department officials, members of the Washington Press Corps and other important government officials. The Close-Up program also offers the opportunity to see the government in action through observation of Congress and various congressional committees.

Funds for the trip are being provided by the Close-Up Foundation, several faculty members, a SLUH alumnus, and the participants themselves.

SLUH MATH CONTEST: "REQUIRES NO SKILL"

On Feb. 13 and 14 entry blanks and tests for the 1st Annual George Washington Memorial Math Contest will go on sale outside the Cafeteria for 25¢. From the time it is bought until Wednesday the 18th in the morning, it can be worked; the test requires no math skills other than basic Algebra and geometry, but rather relies on common sense and logic.

The winner gets one-half of the money collected; each class, other than the winning class, will get one-eighth of the money, and the number of correct answers for each person will be listed. This test is for those not in the Math Club (who are making up the test). The more people there are, are higher the stakes. A grand prize is being considered for the Person(s) who make a perfect score.

CLASS OF '76

DISCUSSES GOALS, CAREERS

On Thursday and Friday of last week, the Juniors participated in a Spirit Day and a Career Day. Both days were termed a success by all who were involved with the interesting events of the two days.

During the course of Spirit Day, the Juniors had various discussion groups on different goals for the Class of '76. Of the many topics that came up, the ones that constantly presided were those of class unity and self-improvement. An idea that came up was a Class of '76 camping trip to boost and strengthen class unity.

Friday was Career Day and different speakers came to talk on their individual fields. These fields ranged from engineering to ecology, and from business management to broadcasting.

FR. BAILEY IN ST. MARYS DUE TO VIRAL INFECTION

Fr. Bailey, suffering from a virus and intestinal trouble was taken to St. Mary's hospital Tuesday. Doctors there examined him and found the trouble to be an inflammation of the colon. Doctors have decided to keep Fr. Bailey in the hospital for about one week so that tests can be run on him to make sure the virus that caused the inflammation has cleared up. Father Bailey is in room 414 and will accept visitors.

TROUPE RETURNS--BILLS TAKE 4, LCSE 1

Five games in six days is a rough schedule for any high school basketball team, but that's just what the Jr. Bills had to go through this past week. What they ended up with were four victories and 1 loss. Two of the victories came against arch-rival C.B.C. The other two came against Vianney and Southwest. The one loss was a heart-breaker to DeSmet (A.K.A. Virgil Payne).

Friday night an overflow crowd saw Kent Miller bomb one in from 25 feet with three seconds left to give the Jr. Bills a 46-44 victory over the K-Dets. Brian Troupe, seeing his first action of the season had 15 points. Steve Saffa sank eight and Ed Relling and Miller each had 8.

Saturday night saw the Jr. Bills' first runaway victory in a while plus the season-high for any Jr. Bill. Led by Kent Miller's 26 points, the Jr. Bills sped to a 63-39 rout of Vianney. Brian Troupe once again got 15 points and Mike Kertz, a substitute guard, added points to the cause.

Monday brought the opening round of the DuBourg Tournament and a 1st round game between SLUH-Southwest. An easy game for the Jr. Bills. Right? Wrong! Behind at half, the Jr. Bills had to fight back and finally won the game, 54-41. Kent Miller again was high for the game with 22 points. Saffa had 14 and Troupe added ten points.

Tuesday night the Jr. Bills took on Virgil Payne. By the way, the rest of the DeSmet team played, though you wouldn't have guessed it if you watched the game which Payne won (Cont. col. 2).....

43-42. In the fourth quarter, the Spartans outscored the Jr. Bills 16-7 and 12 of those 16 points came from Payne. Kent Miller scored 17 points, highest for the Jr. Bills.

The week ended as it began, with Jr. Bill victory over C.B.C. This time it was in overtime and this time it was 54-49. But once again the Jr. Bills had to come back from a nine-point halftime deficit. And once again it was Kent Miller's heroics that clinched the victory. He scored 15 points with most of them coming in the fourth quarter and the overtime period. Troupe also scored 15 points and Steve Saffa added eight.

JV CAGERS CLUB COUGARS

Last Thursday, the J-V basketball team clipped the Affton Cougars 61-58.

Affton, led by four at halftime 26-22 but the 3rd quarter had much in store for the sly Cougars. The Jr Bills came out cookin' and took the lead at the end of three quarters, 43-47. Some strong passwork, alert defense, and an awful lot of hustle by the class of '76 salvaged a 61-58 finale.

Tim Hill who was extremely strong under the boards, led the Jr. Bills with an impressive 20 points. George Stoecklin scored seven points in the fourth quarter to give him a game total of nine. Joe Anstey, John and Jim Paino, Dave Haake, and Dan Renz all had six points. Ron McKinnis ended up with two points for the cause. Jim Fox did not score but he added a big lift to the defense.

WRESTLER'S NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS COME TRUE

Due to devoted practicing during the Christmas vacation, the wrestling team has come through the 1975 season with a 3-0-1 record. Last Friday the team rallied for an unexpected victory over Vianney, as the heavier weights tallied for four straight wins. Pins were scored by Tony Pfitzer, Greg Chura, and Frank Buckley. Steve Conway, John Stieven, and Mike Llewellyn viciously battled for wins. The 27-25 victory was an encouraging effort by the whole team to make all the blood, sweat, and tears of practice pay off.

Saturday at the Roosevelt tournament, Steve Conway came through for his usual gold, Chura brought home the silver, and Tom Tobin and Frank Buckley took fourth places in the 8 team tournament.

Wednesday afternoon, the matmen scrambled the Hancock team and ran away with a 34-24 victory. Pins were scored by Ed Garcia-Otero, Rick Seiler, and Greg Chura. Bill Federer accepted a forfeit and Steve Conway, Mike Micotto, and Mike Llewellyn impressively beat their opponents. Coach Murphy instituted a bonus system for wrestlers who make good moves. (The "bonus" has yet to be revealed).

Although the Hancock wrestlers left much to be desired, they tried to make up for it by bringing 6 cute cheerleaders to distract the SLUH wrestlers.
